

A TRUE NORTH CONSULTANTS EVENT:

ADVENTURES IN LEADERSHIP

Personal Development through Challenge and Reflection

Date: Friday, March 1

Time: 9:30 - 4:00

Location: Giants Ridge

Cost: $55 (includes lunch)

Adventure plays an important role in personal development.
Why shouldn't professional development days reflect that?

- We will spend the morning on leadership topics such as the importance of thinking long-term, reflecting on personal growth experiences, and building work teams through shared experience.
- In the afternoon you will challenge yourself in a winter adventure event on the grounds of Giants Ridge.
- You will navigate along the course, tackle physical and mental challenges, and face a number of surprises along the way. You can choose the challenges you attempt and earn points in a friendly competition

Tyler Fish, a member of the first unsupported, unassisted American expedition to the North Pole, will be our lunch keynote speaker

9:30 Adventures in Leadership

12:00 Keynote: Tyler Fish Unsupported to the North Pole

1:15 - 3:00 Winter Adventure Challenge

3:30 Wrap-up/Awards

The Winter Adventure Challenge will be outside and very active. Attendees can go solo or with a partner. Expect to be traveling on uneven surfaces over challenging terrain. Lunch is included in the registration cost.

Want to come for the day, but skip the adventure?
No problem. We'd love to have you!
